

Transactional Analysis Journal
Special Issue: "For Our Clients"

edited by Carol Solomon, Ph.D.

This is a special issue of our journal written expressly for clients, their therapists and other TA practitioners. In it you will find articles designed to help you enhance many areas of your life.

What Am I Getting Myself Into? describes the process of psychotherapy while The Biological Underpinnings of Treatment Approaches shows how the mind, brain, and body work together in determining who we are. And if you are interested in knowing more about Transactional Analysis: the Basics, you will find that, too.

In addition, there are many articles on areas of special interest including:

- Spirituality
- Dreamwork
- Sexuality in Long-term Relationships
- Coming Out in an Uncertain World
- The Ending of Intimate Relationships
- Investment Games
- Adult Development
- TA in Education and
- Child Therapy

The annotated bibliography will guide you in choosing what you might like to read for further study.

Copies are available at $10 US each, or you may purchase 10 or more for $8 US each (postage included).

This journal is available through the International Transactional Analysis Association by check or credit card via mail, phone, fax, or on our website:

ITAA 2186 Rheem Drive, #B-1, Pleasanton, CA 94588
phone: (925) 600-8110 (credit card only) fax: (925) 600-8112 web address: www.ITAA-net.org

Please use our email address for inquiries only (please do not send orders via email). ITAA@ITAA-net.org

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____ Fax _____

Please send me _____ copies.

Enclosed please find check or payment instructions:

Credit card _____

Expiration date _____